

Why join DCA?

For over 40 years, Diversity Council Australia (DCA) has been the trusted advisor to Australian businesses on all aspects of workplace diversity and inclusion (D&I).

DCA membership covers a range of diversity dimensions, guiding D&I professionals, leaders, HR teams, employee resource groups (ERGs), allies, and champions toward successful and sustainable D&I implementation.

As a member, your entire workforce can access comprehensive resources, grounded in our leading research, including the latest D&I thought leadership, practical toolkits, innovative frameworks, and actionable guides.

Truly inclusive

DCA membership brings everyone along.

Our packed events calendar will inspire your whole organisation through unlimited access to live and recorded webinars, in-person events, and lively panel discussions.

Measurable progress

Track and benchmark your D&I progress with our Inclusive Employer Index a comprehensive survey tool, exclusively discounted for DCA members.

Developed in partnership with Cultural Infusion, the Index delivers invaluable insights into employees' D&I experiences, helping you to cost-effectively prioritise and refine our D&I strategy.

Engage & educate

DCA members enjoy significant discounts on D&I learning programs, eLearning and expert speakers. Offered in-person or virtually, these programs explore fundamental and more specialist topics, such as:

- Diversity & Inclusion Fundamentals
- Anti-Racism Fundamentals
- Building Inclusion at Work
- Countering Unconscious Bias at Work
- Unpacking Words at Work
- Understanding Anti-Racism at Work

Join a community

The DCA member community represents a broad range of industry sectors spanning Australia and New Zealand.

As a DCA member, you'll join a dynamic network of D&I professionals, with regular opportunities to connect through events and forums.
